INTRODUCTION

The Sessional Information Digest has been published for each parliamentary session since 1983-84. Copies of the Digest for 1983-84 and 1984-85 are available free of charge from the Public Information Office, House of Commons, London SW1A 0AA. From 1985-86 onwards, the Digest has been published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office. Subscribers to the Weekly Information Bulletin automatically receive copies, the price being covered by the annual subscription.

Although the Sessional Information Digest is in some ways a cumulation of material from the Weekly Information Bulletin, it is recommended that users retain their Bulletin files, as full bibliographical details are not given here, in order to save space. In this respect, the Digest forms an index and companion to the Bulletin, as well as providing information unavailable elsewhere.

I am grateful to Barbara Donohoe for typesetting this Digest, and to the Journal Office for providing certain unpublished data for Section A.

STANDING ORDER NO 20

Standing Order No 20 allows Members to suggest that a specific and important matter should have urgent consideration and that an emergency debate be held upon it. It is for the Speaker to decide whether the matter is sufficiently specific, important and urgent to warrant giving it precedence, and among other things to have regard to the probability of the matter being brought before the House by other means; the Chair in general gives leave very seldom. During the 1991-92 Session, there were 8 unsuccessful applications, and none successful.
