PREFATORY NOTE

This is the second session for which a Digest has been prepared. The pilot edition for 1983-84 was very well received, and the Public Information Office is very grateful to the very many users who wrote offering suggestions for improvement, additional material, etc., a fair number of which we have been able to take account of in compiling this year's Digest. The initial print of the 1983-84 edition was exhausted by July, and a reprint, with a few minor corrections, put in hand. This indicates to us that the need for the Digest is firmly established - an impression which has been underlined by the number of enquiries we have received about the publication date of this Digest.

The Digest does not replace the files of the Weekly Information Bulletin kept by librarians and information workers. Rather, it forms in many respects an index and companion to it. Publication details, such as ISBNs, and in the case of Consultation Documents the consultation period and issuing office, are not repeated here, in order to save space. If a file of the Bulletin is retained, cross reference to those details will be facilitated.

Acknowledgements

This Digest was written and compiled almost entirely by Pam Bozdan, Editor of the Weekly Information Bulletin, and typeset by Kay Lawrie and Pat Penson. The Public Information Office is extremely grateful to the Journal Office, House of Commons, for their ready co-operation in providing unpublished information, and to Committee Clerks for checking entries relating to their Committees.

SECTION A2

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTIONS

Statistics of Parliamentary Questions are available in two forms. The figures for each, which for various reasons (mainly owing to methods of counting and recording) are not exactly comparable, are as follows:

Questions appearing on the Order Paper calculated by the Journal Office

Put down for Oral Answer	14800
Put down for priority Written Answer	18128
Put down for non-priority Written Answer	13395
	<hr/>
Total	46323

(Not more than about a quarter of all questions put down for Oral Answer will receive such an answer - the rest are answered in writing).

Questions appearing in Hansard, and indexed in the Parliamentary On-line Information System (POLIS).

Oral replies (including supplementaries)*	7326
Written replies	35052
	<hr/>
Total	42378

*Calculating on the basis of the average number of supplementaries from members other than the original questioner, the figure for Questions actually answered orally works out at just under 2,500. With POLIS, a very few Questions may be counted twice.

The total number of private notice questions (excluding Business Questions) was 26.

- 2) Where the list records 'not printed', no copy of the Bill had been received by the Public Information Office up to Prorogation (30 October 1985). It should be understood that copies may be printed subsequently.
- 3) No Church of England Measures were presented during the session.

In order to save space, the list is in an abbreviated form. The title of the Bill is followed by the name of the Member and/or Peer sponsoring it and then in parentheses by a letter denoting the type of Bill (see opposite). Under this are shown the Bill number; or if it has been reprinted as amended, the Bill numbers, the original first, and the latest printing last. The Bill number is followed by the dates of the various stages (e.g. 5.11 - 5 November).

An asterisk (*) means that proceedings were formal, with no debate.

 SUBJECT INDEX TO WHITE PAPERS AND POLICY DOCUMENTS

The following is a basic subject listing of White Papers and policy documents which reached the Public Information Office during the session. Most were printed as Command Papers. The subject is shown (the exact title of the paper is not always quoted in full followed by the Command Paper number (or ISBN in the case of non-parliamentary papers), and the date received by the Public Information Office. Where no Command Paper number or ISBN is given the document was published directly by the Government department concerned.

White Papers, for the purposes of this section, are documents issued by the Government as policy statements. They often set out proposals for legislative changes, which may be debated before a Bill is introduced. On occasions, they invite comments. Government replies to select committee reports are sometimes called White Papers: these are not included here. (See Section B1).
