INTRODUCTION

The Sessional Information Digest has been published for each parliamentary session since 1983-84, and from 1985-86 published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office. Subscribers to the Weekly Information Bulletin automatically receive copies, the price being covered by the annual subscription.

Although the Sessional Information Digest is in some ways a cumulation of material from the Weekly Information Bulletin, it is recommended that users retain their Bulletin files, as full bibliographical details are not given here, in order to save space. In this respect, the Digest forms an index and companion to the Bulletin, as well as providing information unavailable elsewhere. This edition of the Sessional Information Digest includes a new section (C5) on Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 Section 3 (3) Orders.

I am grateful to Mary Walsh, Barbara Donohoe and Anne Vince for typesetting this Digest, to the Journal Office for providing certain unpublished data for Section A, and to all colleagues in the Public Information Office for their forbearance and proofchecking.

PARLIAMENTARY QUESTIONS

Statistics of Parliamentary Questions are available in two forms. The figures for each, which for various reasons (mainly owing to methods of counting and recording) are not exactly comparable, are as follows:

Questions appearing on the Order Paper calculated by the Journal Office

Appearing on the Order Paper for Oral Answer	4,903
Put down for priority Written Answer	20,113
Put down for non-priority Written Answer	24,881

Questions appearing in Hansard, and indexed in the Parliamentary On-line Information System (POLIS)

Oral replies (including supplementaries)*	5,859
Written replies+	42,570

SECTION A4

PRIVATE MEMBERS' MOTIONS

A new Sessional Order was agreed by the House of Commons on 19 December 1994 to allow Private Members' business (other than Bills) to be debated as a series of Adjournment Debates on Wednesday mornings for the remainder of the 1994-95 Session. The last debate on a Private Member's Motion thus took place on 21 October 1994. Madam Speaker made the following statement:

Under the new arrangements there will be one or two general debates between 10am and 1.00pm and up to three short debates between 1.00pm and 2.30pm. Ballots for the subjects to be debated will be held by my office under broadly the same arrangements as those which have hitherto applied for post-consolidated fund bill debates and last day adjournment debates.

These changes became permanent with effect from the beginning of the 1995-96 Session. See Standing Order No 10 1995 (Wednesday sittings).

SECTION A5

USE OF GUILLOTINE

The Guillotine (or allocation of time order) was not used during the session.

SECTION A8

STANDING ORDER NO 20

Standing Order No 20 allows Members to suggest that a specific and important matter should have urgent consideration and that an emergency debate be held upon it. It is for the Speaker to decide whether the matter is sufficiently specific, important and urgent to warrant giving it precedence, and among other things to have regard to the probability of the matter being brought before the House by other means; the Chair in general gives leave very seldom. During the 1994-95 Session, there were 5 unsuccessful applications.

SECTION A9

DIVISIONS

The total number of divisions during the Session was 239.

SECTION A10

EARLY DAY MOTIONS

The total number of Early Day Motions tabled during the Session was 1575. Factsheet No 30 on Early Day Motions is available from the Public Information Office.

DEPARTMENTAL SELECT COMMITTEES: THEIR WORK AND REPORTS

The following is a list of the select committees which are set up to examine the work of Government Departments, and which now constitute the main investigatory system by which the House oversees the exercise of Government responsibilities and the development of public policy and expenditure.

The listing of each departmental committee includes its membership as at Prorogation 1995, the reports issued during the 1994-95 session and of Government observations received.
