

CPA UK ANNUAL REVIEW 2011/2012

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Annual Review of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association UK (CPA UK) for the Financial Year 2011/2012.

It was another busy year as CPA UK continued its work on behalf of Parliament and the wider CPA, promoting parliamentary democracy and good parliamentary practice across the Commonwealth and beyond.

CPA UK continues to focus on parliamentary strengthening and parliamentary diplomacy activities, with increasing emphasis on developing long-term partnership programmes. The year has featured an intensive programme of international parliamentary conferences, seminars, workshops and bi- and trilateral projects. Key themes have included gender in politics, human rights, the Millennium Development Goals and climate change, as well as programmes exploring parliamentary practice and procedure.

CPA UK further developed its significant and unique relationship with the CPA HQ Secretariat, working together with the Houses of Parliament to host the 57th Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference in the Association's centennial year at which Rt Hon. Sir Alan Haselhurst MP, Chair of the CPA UK Executive Committee was elected to be Chairperson of the CPA International Executive Committee. CPA UK continues to provide the Secretariat for the British Islands and Mediterranean Region.

Plans are underway for both the forthcoming year and three-year period (2012-15) which promise to be just as busy and productive, placing greater focus and emphasis on the delivery of long-term (2-5 year) parliamentary strengthening partnership programmes (PSPP).

57TH COMMONWEALTH PARLIAMENTARY CONFERENCE

CPA UK and the Houses of Parliament hosted the annual Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference (CPC) 21-27 July 2011; the year that marked the 100th anniversary of the original Association. The conference theme, 'Reinforcing Democracy,' explored in a full and engaging programme that featured plenary addresses from HRH The Princess Royal (representing the CPA's Patron, HM The Queen), Prime Minister Rt Hon. David Cameron MP, Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs,

Rt Hon. William
Hague MP,
Secretary of State for International Development,
Rt Hon. Andrew
Mitchell MP and the Minister for the Commonwealth, Rt Hon. Lord Howell of Guildford.

Attended by some 600 Commonwealth parliamentarians, CPC 2011 included meetings of representatives of the Small Branches, the Commonwealth Women Parliamentarians Steering Committee, the CPA regional groups, the CPA Working Party and the CPA Executive Committee.

The programme for CPC 2011 was two days shorter than in previous years. The days spent on cultural activities were omitted as an unnecessary expense given the economic climate and the need to drive down costs. With this saving and a strict adherence to other economies, the final out-turn of the conference to CPA UK and the Houses of Parliament was £890,311.90, a reduction of £736,925.13 on the original budget of £1,627,237.03.

CPA UK hosted the first International Parliamentary Conference on the Millennium Development Goals, 'Reaching for 2015: Governance, Accountability and the Role of the Parliamentarian' 28 November-2 December 2011 in the Houses of Parliament. The conference brought together over 60 delegates from Commonwealth and non-Commonwealth national legislatures for discussions focused on the eight target-bound goals outlined in the Millennium Declaration and the role that parliamentarians play in their realisation.

The programme ended on a high on World AIDS Day, 1 December, with a session featuring an address by Ms Annie Lennox OBE, world-renowned singer and UN AIDS Ambassador, and House of Commons Speaker Rt Hon. John Bercow MP. Other speakers included Lord Malloch-Brown, former FCO Minister and UN Deputy Secretary-General; Ms Eveline Herfkens, founder of the UN's Millennium Campaign; and Rt Hon. Lord Howell of Guildford and Rt Hon. Alan Duncan MP, Ministers for the FCO and DfID respectively.

The conference published a communiqué committing delegates to continuing and expanding their work towards the challenge of achieving the MDGs by the 2015 deadline. Other outputs include a set of individual pledges made by each delegate and a toolkit to enable parliamentarians to become champions for the MDGs in their respective parliaments.

4TH COMMONWEALTH YOUTH PARLIAMENT

From 6-10 September, CPA UK and the CPA HQ Secretariat hosted the 4th Commonwealth Youth Parliament (CYP) in Westminster as part of their ongoing commitment to engaging young people in politics, parliament and the Commonwealth. It was attended by 63 young men and women from the six continents of the Commonwealth, with each CPA member legislature given the opportunity to nominate two participants.

The week-long programme ended in a Westminster milestone: on Friday 9 September, delegates and additional participants from Commonwealth diaspora communities in the UK spoke in a debate on climate change in the House of Lords Chamber, in what was only the fifth time that it has ever been used for non-parliamentary business. The debate was presided over by Rt Hon. Baroness D'Souza, the newly-elected Lord Speaker.

As an outcome of a meeting with the Commonwealth Deputy Secretary-General Mmasekgoa Masire-Mwamba, the Commonwealth Youth Parliament was represented by two of its participants, Francis Anyaegbu of Nigeria and Alisha Ally of St Lucia, at the pre-CHOGM Commonwealth Youth Forum, in Western Australia.

INTERNATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY SEMINARS

61ST WESTMINSTER SEMINAR ON PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE & PROCEDURE

CPA UK hosted 55 delegates at the 61st Westminster Seminar on Parliamentary Practice & Procedure 5-9 March 2012. The aim of the annual seminar is to enhance the capacity of delegates to work more effectively within their respective legislatures by deepening their knowledge of Westminster-model parliamentary practice and procedure. The programme was based at Westminster and included visits to local constituencies in the London area.

Repeating the innovation made last year, the programme lasted one week rather than two, as was the model before 2010/2011, without sacrificing any of the core activities.

2ND WESTMINSTER WORKSHOP: THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE

Immediately after the Westminster Seminar, CPA UK hosted the second in its series of Westminster Workshops, this year focusing on the Public Accounts Committee (PAC). Sixty-one delegates, including PAC members, PAC Clerks and representatives of Supreme Audit
Institutions attended the workshop.
Its aim was to enhance the capacity of delegates to scrutinise government expenditure effectively through an in-depth study of both the Westminster
PAC and other variations in use across the Commonwealth.

The programme was highly interactive, with breakout sessions and group exercises focusing on the specific issues faced by parliamentarians, Clerks and PACs in both small and large legislatures.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

CPA UK expected an annual grant-in-aid payment of £1,948,000 from the Houses of Parliament (70% Commons / 30% Lords). However, in support of the cost savings agenda in the country at large, the Executive Committee approved a 10% reduction in the grant-in-aid for the financial year ending 31 March 2012 in addition to agreeing to forego the fourth quarter grant-in-aid payment from the financial year ending 31 March 2011. The impact has been a year-end overspend (deficit) of £58,208.

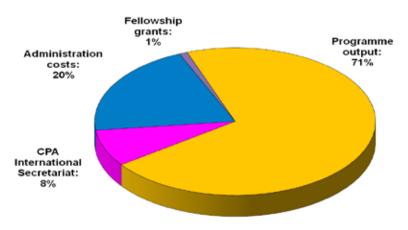

CPC 2011. In year, Parliament contributed £692,241 to CPC 2011 to which CPA UK added a contribution from reserves bringing the total in year amount for CPC 2011 to £752.151.

New Reserves Policy. As part of the new March 2012 Financial Memorandum with both Houses of Parliament, the Executive Committee has agreed that no more than one quarter of the annual funding will be retained as reserves at any one time. As at 31 March 2012 CPA UK's reserves stood at £856,819. CPA UK will work in year to reduce those reserves to the correct level.

CPA UK Fellowship Scheme. On 19 April 2000 the Executive Committee designated a stand-alone fund of non-public money, originally raised by sponsorship for the 1986 CPC in London, as the CPA UK Fellowship Scheme. The purpose of the Fellowship Scheme is to assist CPA UK Members to visit Commonwealth countries to study specific topics as approved by the Executive Committee. As at 31 March 2012 the designated Fellowship Scheme funds have been reduced to £115,901 by in-year grants of £20,972 awarded to:

- Three MPs and one peer for a gender inquiry in Bangladesh
- Three MPs for a visit to Nigeria to learn about barriers to achieving universal primary education
- One MP to participate in a joint programme in Sri Lanka with the Royal Commonwealth Society to learn more about conflict resolution

Programme output 71%: The programme output covered in the period has been reflected earlier in the review, although support costs have been allocated to the programmes of activities on the basis of staff time and in accordance to the Charities (SORP) Statement of Recommended Practice.

Administration Costs 20%: The administration costs for the financial year include governance costs and approved support costs for the Chairperson of the CPA International Executive Committee Rt Hon. Sir Alan Haselhurst MP.

CPA HQ Secretariat 8%: CPA UK annual subscriptions paid to the CPA HQ Secretariat for its membership of the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association.

Fellowship Grants 1%: Eight parliamentarians received grants from CPA UK Fellowship Scheme to help fund three projects.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

CPA UK looks to the future. Following the cancellation of the planned International Relations Directorate in March 2011 and as mentioned earlier in this Review, in May 2011 CPA UK restructured and reorganised to enable CPA UK to deliver its mission and international parliamentary outreach on behalf of Parliament and the wider CPA in a more effective and efficient manner. Five teams were established; an operational & communications team, three regional teams and a finance, HR and administration team. The new structure recognises the importance of effective communications in CPA UK's work and its flexibility enables specialist project teams to be set up to deliver CPA UK's trademark international parliamentary conferences, seminars and workshops whilst continuing to deliver parliamentary strengthening partnership programmes (PSPP) and parliamentary diplomacy.

Parliaments throughout the Commonwealth and around the world look to Westminster for help, advice and guidance. CPA UK will continue to focus on the extremely important and ever-growing demand driven work of parliamentary strengthening with more PSPP. To achieve the successful delivery of parliamentary strengthening, CPA UK recognises the need for Parliament's international outreach work to be coordinated and will continue to work with others to ensure intra-Parliament coordination and communication.

CPA UK will seek to deliver more for less or the same by leveraging funding from government departments, the Commonwealth Secretariat and other international organisations. Long–term (2-5 year) PSPP with evolving and new parliamentary democracies and other partners are underway. Their successful delivery depends on the involvement of Westminster Members, Peers, Clerks and officials.

CPA UK's work is extremely important for parliamentary democracy, is of great relevance to Members of both Houses and contributes to the soft power of the UK. By building on the success of its programmes and enhancing its communications in Parliament and beyond, CPA UK will seek to involve a greater number of Members and Peers.
