

ParliREACH

Race Ethnicity And Cultural Heritage

The workplace equality network

What is ParliREACH?

It is the workplace equality network focussed on issues of Race, Ethnicity And Cultural Heritage (REACH). Our aim is to promote awareness of REACH issues in Parliament.

- Advocate for the recruitment, development and retention of staff from under-represented groups.
- Provide a support network and signposting service for our members.
- Host professional, networking, and social events.

What does ParliREACH do?

How can I get involved?

Anyone with a Parliamentary pass can be a member of ParliREACH. Please join us at our events and get in touch to tell us what we can do to mark Parliament more diverse and inclusive.

Your local ParliREACH contact is:

parlireach@parliament.uk