Tours run throughout the day and offer a unique combination of one thousand years of history, modern day politics, and stunning art and architecture.

The 75-minute 'Blue Badge' guided tours start by following the route taken by The Queen at the State Opening of Parliament; from The Queen's Robing Room, through the Royal Gallery and Prince's Chamber, into the majestic Lords Chamber.

Tours then move on through Central Lobby, Members' Lobby and one of the voting lobbies before entering the Commons Chamber, scene of many lively debates.

Passing through St Stephen's Hall, the tours end in 900 year old Westminster Hall, where Guy Fawkes and King Charles I were tried and where Nelson Mandela and Barack Obama have addressed Parliament in recent years.

Useful information

Jubilee Cafe, located next to Westminster Hall, offers a selection of light meals, and hot and cold drinks.

The souvenir shop is located along the tour route. Also, The Houses of Parliament Shop is located on the corner of Parliament Street and Bridge Street (not currently open on Saturdays).

The tour route is wheelchair accessible except for St Stephen's Hall which has steps at either end but can still be viewed from Central Lobby. One carer can be admitted free of charge but still requires a ticket.

The tour involves quite a lot of standing so is not suitable for very young children. Pushchairs may not be admitted but baby carriers are available on request.

Large luggage cannot be admitted and there are no left luggage facilities.
